2026 Worldwide Voyages

WELCOME TO

Experience the exceptional world of Crystal.

From the moment you step onboard our beautifully reimagined ships, feel the warm embrace of the Crystal family.

Forge new friendships and reunite with familiar faces to create memories that will last a lifetime. Once you experience Crystal, you will never want to sail with anyone else.

Welcome aboard – and welcome home.

THE CRYSTAL FAMILY

HAVE YOU HEARD THE LATEST?

From elegant ships to expert-led adventures and delectable gelato, catch up on the news from Crystal.

Clockwise from above: BADIANI IS CREATING THE DELICIOUS GELATO AT SCOOPS; BY A&K LAND EXPERIENCES, FROM TEA CEREMONIES IN JAPAN TO LUXURY SAFARIS IN TANZANIA, ARE AVAILABLE TO BOOK; CRYSTAL'S ULTRA ALL-INCLUSIVE SERVICE MEANS EVERYTHING IS TAKEN CARE OF, INCLUDING GOURMET DINING.

Discover the Crystal difference — it's what makes us the custodian of excellence on the ocean and brings our guests back time and time again. It's that certain something, born of our desire to create a sublime experience at sea just for you. That's why we are always refining what we offer and introducing exciting new ideas that will delight.

First the big news. We are pleased to report good progress on our next two ships. The first is due to join our fleet in spring 2028, more about which will be unveiled soon.

We've also launched a collection of extraordinary onshore experiences, By Abercrombie & Kent. No one can create adventures on land quite like our sister brand, the world's leading luxury travel company. Find out more about how you will be able to explore deeper and further in our report on page 6.

Our reputation for innovative fine dining is second to none: we're home to the only restaurant at sea by revered chef Nobu Matsuhisa; host the ocean debut of international dining sensation Beefbar; and we recently collaborated with Michelin-starred Alajmo brothers on the menus in our signature Italian restaurant, Osteria D'Ovidio. Now, we are proud to announce that Badiani is creating all the gelato and sorbets for Scoops.

Down the generations, the craftspeople at the Italian artisan gelato-maker have been perfecting their art since the company's founding in Florence in 1932. It's a skill you are sure to appreciate when you taste a delicious scoop (or two) of their creations — with a sea view.

You will be spoilt for choice; there are more than 20 signature flavors, all of which have been slow-churned with the addition of fresh and natural ingredients, including Buontalenti, La Dolcevit, and Stracciatella, as well as refreshing fruit sorbets.

It's this attention to detail that has won Crystal multiple awards. But none matter more than those voted for by you, our guests. That's why it means so much to have received the recent accolade of Top Midsize-Ship Ocean Cruise Line in the prestigious Travel + Leisure World's Best Awards 2025 readers' survey. Such recognition drives our determination to continue surpassing your expectations.

WE'RE ULTRA ALL-INCLUSIVE

On Crystal, our all-inclusive program gives you the sense of freedom and peace of mind that comes from knowing we've taken care of everything. Our butler service comes as standard for every single guest room and suite. Our gourmet dining is complimentary, even in our specialty restaurants, including Chef Nobu's Umi Uma®, international culinary sensation Beefbar, and Osteria D'Ovidio, with menus designed by the Michelin-starred Alajmo brothers. Plus premium wines and spirits are served in every bar, whenever you like. Every show, every creative workshop, every yoga class is covered. We even look after gratuities, so you don't have to think about it.

SHORE

Laura Archer previews our new collection of exclusive destination experiences,
By Abercrombie & Kent

It began, as it always does, with a stomach-flip of excitement as the elegant silhouette of Crystal Symphony finally came into view after what seemed like an eternity navigating the tangle of the port. Next came those familiar warm greetings and then that first delicious sip of Champagne as I was ushered onboard and into the cocooning comfort of my home away from home for the next few nights.

But this time sailing with Crystal was going to differ from my previous voyages in one crucial way: I would be ending my cruise not with a reluctant trip from the ship to the airport for my return flight home, but with a very special experience on land organized by travel pioneer and Crystal's sister brand, Abercrombie & Kent.

By A&K is a new collection of experiences thoughtfully designed to give Crystal guests access to Abercrombie & Kent's unrivaled network of destination experts and decades of experience wowing travelers with adventure by day and luxury by night. From the golden plains of the Serengeti to the thronged hutongs of Beijing, these trips have been crafted to offer memorable moments and exclusive events in some of the world's most breathtaking places.

I opted for a Post-Cruise Extension in Tuscany (you can also do a Pre-Cruise Extension or hop off the ship midway to enjoy an Overland Journey, rejoining the cruise at a later port). Of course, the seagoing side of the experience more than lived up to expectation, Crystal's award-winning service never skipping a beat as we weaved our way from Barcelona through the Balearic Islands to Italy, where I was leaving the ship to continue my adventures onshore with A&K on a deep dive into Tuscan culture.

As our small group, led by an A&K-vetted guide, wound through the vine-threaded hills and golden wheat fields of the UNESCO-listed Val d'Orcia, the sea felt a world away. Clusters of the region's signature cypress trees stood like exclamation points, as if astonished by the beauty of the landscape in which they found themselves. Sun-baked, Renaissance villages watched over the valley from their hilltop perches as they have done for centuries. We drank it all in — along with the delicious Brunello wines we sampled at various cellar doors.

Over four days, the experiences hand-picked by A&K left us with a deep connection to the soul and soil of Tuscany. We learned how to make the region's famed pecorino cheese while the sheep whose milk we were using bleated in the fields around us. "You can never make an interesting cheese with boring milk, and the way the sheep graze and what plants are in season influences the milk's taste," the cheesemaker told us sagely. We sipped wine overlooking the vines from where the grapes had been picked and went hunting for truffles beneath sprawling oaks.

A family-run osteria opened especially to serve us lunch, conjuring up a simple yet note-perfect spread from a tiny kitchen — cured meats and cheeses, freshly made bread dipped into golden pools of olive oil, truffle-coated pasta, whipped ricotta with fresh berries. We swam in steaming thermal springs and watched a strawberry moon rise over the dusky-blue hills from an 11th-century castle. And, to top it all off, we took a tour of an art collection so private that we had to sign an NDA just to witness it — a fitting example of how traveling with A&K opens doors you didn't even know were there.

CELEBRATE GOOD TIMES

We're rockin' all over the world with our spectacular new show.
Join us as we put a fresh spin on a great night out.

Ready for a high-energy musical journey that will whisk you away to the hottest nightspots? Club Nights is the latest production from our talented ensemble of singers, dancers, and musicians — a celebration of the sights and sounds of a great night out.

Our sensational tour recreates the electric atmosphere of the music we all love, from country music to easy listening, and the iconic venues where people come together to enjoy these sounds — the saloon, the Vegas club, the jazz lounge, and more. You'll be dazzled by the costumes, from sparkly showgirl feathers to bikers' leathers, which together with custom-built scenery, props, and club-inspired lighting, conjure up the character of each location.

You'll hear the intertwining melodies of country and honky tonk at a Nashville music club, and raucous rock anthems in a bikers saloon. Relive the Rat Pack years with the crooners on stage in Vegas, and the soulful rhythms of B.B. King and Bonnie Raitt at the blues and jazz lounge. We even cross the ocean to the U.K. to soak up the Seventies rock opera spirit with songs by The Who in a typical London pub.

But what makes this thrilling show different from the rest is that it's not just about what you'll see and hear, it's about what you'll feel, too. We guarantee you'll be transported back to those places you know and love and that have been the scene of some of your most memorable moments.

This bold and beautiful original show — now live on Crystal Serenity and coming to Crystal Symphony in November — is our first new production since our relaunch in 2023 under new owners Abercrombie & Kent Travel Group.

"We designed Club Nights to be unlike anything else at sea," explains Keith Cox, VP of Entertainment for Crystal. "It's immersive, innovative, and infused with the energy of the world's most iconic nightlife destinations. Our goal is to surprise and delight our guests at every turn — and this show delivers on every level."

LET US ENTERTAIN YOU

There's never a dull moment on Crystal. You can watch thrilling performances in our theaters and blockbusters in our cinemas, while musicians play live in our bars and lounges, and our DJs spin tunes in our nightclubs. By day, there are fascinating talks by leading experts from chefs to former secret service agents, and activities ranging from craft workshops to paddle tennis. Even our younger guests have their own places for hanging out — Fantasia for little ones and Waves for teens — and entertainment from scavenger hunts to cinema nights.

A sequence of small islands maps a charming route for us. First, Saint Martin on Marigot, with its gingerbread-style houses. Then Roseau on Dominica beckons, a little island clad in rainforest. Next, buzzy Bridgetown, Barbados, delivers us to powder sands loved by celebrities. The soaring twin volcanic cones, the Pitons, signal our arrival in Saint Lucia, where we overnight at Castries. St. John's, Antigua, is next — don't miss the carefully preserved dockyard used by Admiral Nelson's ships. Time to beach-bar hop in Jost Van Dyke, British Virgin Islands, before discovering more about the Dominican Republic in the museum at Samana. Enjoy the beach life at Grand Turk on Turks and Caicos before we spend two days sailing to our final port, New York City.

EXPERIENCE: Swim with turtles and snorkel over shipwrecks in the waters around Barbados.

A leisurely day at sea puts us in vacation mode, ready for our first port of call, the powder-white sands of Turks and Caicos. Don't forget your snorkel — this island has the third-largest barrier reef in the world. We sail onwards to the lush rainforests of the Dominican Republic, the cobblestone streets of San Juan, Puerto Rico, and the rugged bays of the British Virgin Islands. Relax onboard as we spend another day at sea, bound for Oranjestad, Aruba, the Dutch island's bustling and brightly colored harbor city. Then we head to our final destination, Cartagena, on the coast of Colombia, where we overnight, leaving time to sample a delicious Cazuela de mariscos, the city's legendary seafood stew, and admire the astonishing 16th-century architecture.
